SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our last day of our work week ended on a hot Sunday. Officers were not as busy as the rest of the week, but what calls for service they did respond to require a more thorough investigative approach. During this shift, officers spotted a vehicle that was involved in previous thefts. The officer was able to catch up to the vehicle and conduct a traffic enforcement stop for vehicle code violations. He contacted the occupants of the vehicle (a female and 2 males) and discovered that one of the occupants was on probation (even after she claimed she was not). A search was conducted of the car, and 2 handguns were located, loaded. They also found some stolen property from the previous thefts the car was involved in. Two of the occupants were gang members from Merced County. All subjects went to jail on various theft and weapon violations.
