2 Found Property	1 Traffic Offense	1 Auto Theft
2 Assault/Battery	1 Lost Property	1 Injury Accident

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Dayshift was busy all day. Right out of briefing, officers responded to a school for a suspicious person at the office acting strange. An adult female was contacted and found to be on probation for identity theft. She was in possession of numerous items of stolen mail from multiple people. The owners of some of the mail were contacted and confirmed their mail was stolen. She was arrested and booked for possession of stolen property. More follow-up will be done to contact the remaining victims. A male was contacted during a domestic dispute call and found to have an outstanding warrant for child abuse. He was booked for the warrant. This afternoon, officers responded to a vehicle vs bicyclist accident downtown. Luckily, the bicyclist only sustained minor injuries.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 7

CATEGORIES

2 Suspicious Incident	1 Traffic Offense	1 Damaged Property
1 Public Intoxication	1 Lost Property	1 Warrant Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Swing shift officers started out to only a few calls on the screen. Officers responded to those calls for service, and conducted traffic enforcement stops when not busy. Throughout the shift, no major calls for service occurred. TPD officers responded to a possible domestic violence situation. A resident called TPD to report they saw a male striking a female on the street. officers arrived quickly and were able to located the female half. She denied any altercation, but did say she was yelling at her boyfriend (who was nowhere to be found at this time). The witness was contacted and stated they didn't actually see a battery, but heard the yelling and assumed that was happening. Officers also made time to attend range training drills when not responding to calls.
